

Southwest Ohio Prevention Plan Logic Model

Goal: Increase the capacity of communities, parents, and caregivers to improve the well-being of children.
INPUTS	OUTPUTS			OUTCOMES/IMPACT
Resources/Assets	Strategies	Activities	Comprehensive Needs Assessment	Short-term 1/1/2017-6/30/2018	Intermediate	Long-term
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A common agenda across 8 Counties • Organizational expertise in strengths-based approaches with a capacity to reach a multi-county area • A cross-agency council of prevention specialists • OCTF guidance & knowledge of what works • The OCTF 8 regions that can formulate a policy advocacy approach • Backbone Organization (WSU/APRI) has expertise in guiding vision, strategy, & communications; supporting aligned activities; establishing shared measurement; and advancing policy • Consistent funding (based on performance) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase community, parent, and caregiver knowledge to promote optimal child development and reduce child abuse and neglect • Facilitate the social-emotional development of children who have challenges. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Build the prevention network by supporting parent leaders to participate & by aligning public, private, philanthropic partners with a shared agenda to end child maltreatment. • Deliver universal prevention awareness campaigns. • Build the capacity of parents/caregivers to have nurturing & responsive caregiving relationships with children. • Invest in tangible, high quality supports in early childhood environments & build networks of support. • Provide training, guidance & coaching to parents & caregivers on how to promote their child's development of targeted social-emotional skills. • Provide instruction in social skills & emotional regulation to children with risk factors. • Invest in & provide train-the-trainer programs to early education professionals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Concurrent initiatives & investments being made (e.g., infant mortality & VOCA funding) but not aligned • 74% of all adults in SW Ohio have 1 ACE score; 232,765 adults have chronic stress (4+ ACEs) • ODJFS analysis shows largest gap in service in Ohio is for parenting services • Need for standard training and practice • Safety concerns in schools • Opioid epidemic & kinship care • Children diagnosed w/developmental disabilities and behavioral challenges/ disorders increasing at an alarming rate 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase partnerships and alliances among CAN prevention & agencies providing integrated services for families • Increase knowledge, awareness & access to info • RFGA released, subcontract in place, marketing group increasing awareness of EBP to reduce CAN • RFGA released, subcontract in place, contractor use of evidence-based practices in carrying out strengths-based training to increase knowledge of protective factors, and behaviors that promote healthy child & family well-being with parents/caregivers, schools, & early childhood organizations • Increase data-driven decision making related to CAN prevention • RFGA released, subcontract in place, contractor improving social/emotional development & improving protective factors for children • Increase in safe environments for children 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Policy/Advocacy agenda informed by parents • A regional Prevention Network draws attention & funding • 3,360 more parents/caregivers develop practices that promote resilience, protective capacities. & concrete supports • 4,065 more teachers/early childhood professionals apply strengths-based strategies • More tangible supports for teachers and early childhood providers, for all & for those serving at-risk • Regional leaders share a dashboard and an agenda • Awareness campaigns inform & influence 250,000 people • 3,480 at-risk children show improved social, emotional, behavioral functioning 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Decrease in child maltreatment • Increase the proportion of children meeting appropriate educational milestones • Improve child and family stability by training, informing, or educating 10% of targeted & general population. Scientists at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute have found that when just 10 percent of the population holds an unshakable belief, their belief will always be adopted by the majority of society.